USAGE GUIDE

What is SCD Bio Livestock?

SCD Bio Livestock is an all-natural probiotic feed and water supplement for animals. SCD Bio Livestock improves the underlying microbial ecology of both livestock and household pets to one that is balanced and healthy. With consistent use, SCD Bio Livestock may help to improve your animal's digestion, and may control the re-emergence of disease-causing bacteria.

SCD Bio Livestock is made using SCD Probiotics Technology and the principles of beneficial microorganism applied science. It is produced through a natural fermentation process; it is not chemically synthesized or genetically engineered or modified.

SCD Bio Livestock is a concentrate product and should be used as directed.
